Khalil Mechantaf, Q.Arb

Arbitrator | Mediator

Mechantaf Law

BIOGRAPHY

Khalil is a bilingual, dual-qualified dispute resolution professional and a recognized name in the commercial arbitration community. He has more than 15 years of experience advising on complex insurance claims, construction projects, infrastructure, and commercial disputes. Khalil has appeared in arbitration and mediation across the commercial and construction supply chain in high-value projects, involving a broad range of delivery models and contractual frameworks. His sector experience spans business and trade, engineering and construction, and industrial and manufacturing matters.

He is a Qualified Arbitrator (Q.Arb) and accepts appointments as arbitrator and mediator in commercial and construction disputes, under both ad hoc and institutional procedures.

Representative Arbitration Experience

- CCDC arbitration between a design and build contractor and a municipality, pertaining to claims of delay, issues of scope, error and omissions, and defects in the design and construction of an extension building in northwest Ontario.
- CCDC arbitration between a general contractor and a subcontractor, pertaining to claims of delay, suspension, disruption, change orders and quantum.
- Ad-hoc arbitration arising from a shareholder dispute between an energy and storage cooperative and a manufacturer over claims of misrepresentations, warranties, fiduciary duties and oppressive conduct.
- DIAC arbitration between the developer and general contractor, pertaining to issues of acceleration, delay, disruption, and quantum, arising from the construction of a multi-purpose real estate project.
- ICC arbitration between general contractor and subcontractor, pertaining to issues of scope, de-scoping, back-charges, good faith, delay, quantum, and damages.

Representative Mediation Experience

- Mediation between the lead insurer and insured, pertaining to issues arising from a builder's risk policy.
- Mediation between a general contractor and a subcontractor, pertaining to issues arising from a CCDC contract.
- Mediation between TARIION and home purchasers, pertaining to warranty claims.
